

WELCOME TO SHENANDOAH NATIONAL PARK

The best national park on the East Coast invites Polish students.

Shenandoah National Park encompasses part of the Blue Ridge Mountains in the U.S. state of Virginia. This national park is long and narrow, with the broad Shenandoah River and Valley on the west side, and the rolling hills of the Virginia Piedmont on the east. Perfect for outdoor/wilderness enthusiasts and photographers. Quiet, remote location far from the city lights. The town of Luray has a couple of festivals during the summer. They also have Luray Caverns, which is close to where students are working. They also have a nice 4th of July celebration. This is a great location for hiking and site seeing as well.

Located 20 minutes from the nearest city and just 75 miles from the bustle of Washington, D.C., Shenandoah National Park is your escape to recreation and re-creation. Cascading waterfalls, spectacular vistas, quiet wooded hollows—great place to hike, camp, bike, fish, take photographs, or go canoeing. 200,000 acres of protected lands are haven to deer, songbirds, and other wildlife. It is almost 4000 feet to the tallest point of the mountains. Inside the National Park there is no public transportation available; Only a laundry facility is available inside the Park.

Luray, a small town near the park, is home to the world famous Luray Caverns and the central entry point of the Shenandoah National Park and scenic Skyline Drive. Population: 4,869.
